

ONE-LINER RESPONSES FOR COUNTY RECORDER

Purpose: Stay calm, firm, and consistent. Every stall tactic ends with the same directive: "Please record it."

If they say: "We can't record this, it's not the right form."

→ "Your duty is ministerial — you record, not interpret. Please record it."

If they say: "We've never seen this type of document before."

→ "First time for everything. Please record it."

If they say: "You'll need an attorney or court order."

→ "Affidavits are lawful evidence under penalty of perjury. Please record it."

If they say: "We don't take these kinds of documents."

→ "You don't get to decide content, only to file what's presented. Please record it."

If they say: "We'll have to review this and get back to you."

→ "I'm here now, in person, presenting for record. Please record it."

If they say: "This needs approval/supervisor sign-off."

→ "Then please have your supervisor sign off. I'll wait. Please record it."

If they say: "We can't index this to the property."

→ "The parcel number and legal description are right here. Please record it."

If they say: "This isn't a court judgment."

→ "It is a sworn affidavit, un rebutted, which stands as judgment at law. Please record it."

Final note: Stay centered. No debate, no argument. Just repeat the directive: "Please record it."
